NEW ORLEANS.

The Bonnett Cave Crevasse.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Assistant State Engineer Hatch, writing yesterday from the Bonnett Cave Crevasse, says it is now from six hundred to six hundred and fifty feet wide and a vast volume of water rushes through with a roar like thunder, piling itself up in the middle in the form of an arch, of which the centre is five or six feet higher than the sides. The torrent has cut its channel through from the Batture fifty feet, while steadily foot by foot the great levee crumbles into its boiling waters. The closing of this crevasse is beyond the range of possibilities, and the next best thing to be done is to prevent, if possible, the widening of the breach. A continuous body of water extends from here to Lake Ponchartrain, and for many miles above and below. The disaster is great and deplorable, and is beyond the reach of a remedy, as every one who has seen it will admit. The following telegram has been received at the executive office of the Western Union Telegraph Co.: "Louisville, April 24.—Wm. Orton. The crevasse which occurred in the levee of the Mississippi at Bennett Cave, above New Orleans some days ago, has been gradually increasing in extent until it is now entirely beyond control. It was last evening six hundred and fifty-four feet wide and eighteen deep. The danger to the city of New Orleans, Jackson Railroad and our lines is very serious. JOHN VAN HORNE, Gen. Supt.

NEW YORK.

The Coal Troubles—Ku Klux in South Carolina—German Relief Fund—The San Juan Boundary—Spanish Affairs—A Clergyman Arrested.

NEW YORK, April 24, 1871.

THE COAL TROUBLES.

A dispatch from Pottsville, Pa., says that at a district meeting of the Workingmen's Benevolent Association on Saturday evening, a preamble and resolutions were adopted, stating that, whereas, the railroad and mining corporations are combining with our employers to crush us below the level of plantation slaves or Russian serfs, by offering for our services a stipend scarcely enough to keep body and soul together; and, whereas, it is our duty to contend against all such forms of oppression and injuries; and, whereas, merchants of St. Clair have materially aided us by furnishing provisions and other necessaries of life during our struggles, therefore we protest against such unlawful combinations of railroad and mining corporations with our employers as injurious to the community at large and disastrous to individual coal enterprises and as will eventually result in the accession of unlawful power by these corporations, and in the oppression of the poor of our cities, by charging exorbitant rates for coal. The resolution further thanks friends and merchants for pecuniary assistance, and expresses satisfaction with Judge Elwell as umpire.

A CLERGYMAN ARRESTED.

Rev. Dr. Nanz and Henry Martin have been arrested and brought before Commissioner Davenport, charged with acting in complicity with Henry M. Karpies, previously arrested on preparing and presenting for payment forged claims for bounty money and back pay. It is understood that the mode of operation was to obtain a list of deceased or living discharged soldiers who had not presented their claims for bounty money or back pay and then make out bogus claims in such soldiers' names. Nanz claims to be a Doctor of Divinity, and asserts his innocence of the charges. They were held for examination.

KU KLUX IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Tribune's Washington special says that intelligence has just been received from South Carolina to the effect that a party of disguised men rode to the house of Robert Melton, an elderly Union man, of Southern birth, living on his little farm, near old Shore, Chesterfield county, and called for him to come out. When he appeared at the door, accompanied by his wife and daughter, all three were immediately shot. His wife was instantly killed, and Mr. Melton fatally, and his daughter dangerously wounded. Mr. Melton was collector of delinquent taxes.

THE SAN JUAN BOUNDARY.

The Tribune's Washington coorespondent telegraphs that one proposition of the High Commission will be, it is generally believed, to leave the San Juan Boundary question to arbitration. No objection would probably be made to this course, provided the American papers and the reports on the subject can be admitted as evidence in the case. This would, without doubt, secure the award of the Island to the United States, as no American statesman, of any party, who is versed in International Law, believes that Great Britain has any just claim upon it.

SPANISH AFFAIRS.

English papers by the Deutschland report the death of Schamyl recently at Media. The Spanish Generals recently exiled to the Balearic Islands have received permission to return home.

LEGISLATIVE.

LONDON, April 24.—In the House of Commons, George Dixon, member for Birmingham, gave notice of a motion against the tax on matches. At the same time he argued to demonstrate the fallacy of Lowe's reasons for expecting a larger revenue from increasing activity in cotton fabrics and diminishing the price of cotton. The sum total demanded by the Government, he said, was inordinate and unexampled in time of peace.

Other members denounced the proposals of the budget as unduly interfering with every department of industry.

Mr. Lowe replied—be pointed to the postponement of the Army Regulation Bill as calculated to diminish demands and remove the features of the budget, which were objected to, but generally defended his recommendation, and especially that for a match tax, because that import bore equally on all classes of society.

The latter was arrested and confined in jail, while his brother Bill made his escape, and sent word back from Paducah, Kentucky, that he had a list of the Ku-Klux in the county, which he had found in the desk, and would send some colored troops there to squelch them A few days since Schaefers, accompanied by Sheriff Vincent, proceeded to Paducah, and with a requisition arrested Bill and started for Dresden with his prisoner. This morning about two o'clock, when the train carrying the party stopped at Ralston on the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, some eight miles from Dresden, about forty men with masks suddenly appeared, and after pointing pistols at the railroad officials, took the prisoner off.

This morning the bodies of Ed and Bill were both found hanging in the woods. It appears that they had forced the jailor at Dresden to give up Ed and had taken him to Ralston.

"Ere's Your Sun, Only a Cent."

Reader, did you ever hear a soft, plaintive, lonely little voice piping out this, or some other sentence like this, as you journeyed homeward on a wet, stormy, winter's evening after a hard day's work? Did you ever reflect upon it and allow your imagination to work, and attempt to conjure up what his tory might be written of the life of one of these lonely little street "wanderers?" As you take your bright eyed boy on your lap, before your cheerful fireside, and pushing his curls back from his forehead, you read within his innocent gaze the future that lies before him—of poverty's cold touch, of the orphan's lonely wanderings up and down through the world after you are gone, seeking that which is lost forever—"a father's love." Did it ever occur to you that the lot of your child might be thrown among these little castways? Take one of them up on your knee and question him as to his history, who his parents were, where they are, and if dead, as is most likely to be the case, what they died of. You will be amazed to find how many of them once had happy homes like your own child has, but the unrelenting hand of Fate, has roughly touched them, as your's may be touched ere another twelve-month has passed away. Then deal gently with these homeless little ones, don't rudely push them away, but remember that they, like you, are battling for life, the only difference being that their's is a lowlier life, a sadder journey than yours, and for this reason they need all the more your kindly notice. What visions brighten up the tiny eyes of these little fellows as you drop your pennies into their dirty hands—visions of a brighter home and happier fireside than they now enjoy—visions of a little sister, lying somewhere sick on a lonely couch, made cheerful by the brother's daily earnings—visions of a kind mother's gentle words and love, now lost forever, and a father's caress, just such a father possibly as yourself, and one who thought full as much of his boy as you do of yours.

Think of these things, and more, as you listen to the plaintive cry, "only a cent." That cent is a whole world almost to the little one, a fortune, a fount of joy. His heart warms at sight of it, and chills as you thoughtlessly push him away. Be kind to these poor boys.

THE GRAY TRIAL.

The Preliminaries Arranged—The Counsel Engaged—Personnell of Principal Parties in the Case.

This morning the ecclesiastical trial of the Rev. John A. Gray, late pastor of Christ M. E. Church, this city, will commence in that church before the select committee appointed by the Conference, of which he is a member, for that purpose. Our readers have already been made acquainted with the allegations charged, and the history of the case thus far, and will look with interest to the result.

The preliminary arrangements, with the exception of the organization of the Committee, are completed, and the indications are that the investigation will be searching and satisfactory—whether it establishes the guilt of the accused or results in his triumphant acquittal.

The Committee will consist of seven members, but these had not been finally decided upon last night; several who had been appointed withdrew and until it is formally organized it will be impossible to tell who shall compose the investigating Board.

Some idea of the case and interest felt in the it may be inferred from the character of the men who have it in charge.

The deliberations will be presided over by the Rev. Dr. D. L. Dempsey of Beaver, who as Presiding Elder, has charge of the M. E. charges in the city under his eldership. Dr. Dempsey is regarded as one of the "strong men" of the denomination, and in age, judgment and ministerial experience, eminently qualified for the responsible position he will occupy. He is one of the oldest ministers in the Pittsburgh Conference—in years and experience, and as an executive officer or Theologian, holds the front rank among his brethren. Being well versed in ecclesiastical law and a strict disciplinarian, it is probable there will be no trouble about understanding his decisions. He is on the shady side of fifty, and genial and affable in social intercourse, as he is uncompromising in the discharge of any duty.

The accused, Rev. Mr. Gray, is a young man scarcely turned thirty, and a very forcible and attractive pulpit orator in manner, while his matter is terse, original and vigorous. He has always been considered one of the most popular and able ministers of the Methodist Episcopal persuasion wherever he has figured. His ministry embraces but about half a dozen years, yet in that time he has held two of the best charges in the West—the pastorates of Wabash avenue, Chicago, and Christ Church, Pittsburgh, and in both has been universally esteemed. So high was he held in Chicago, that when the rumors here about him began to create excitement, his late ministerial associates in Chicago assembled and passed a series of strong resolutions, expressing their sympathy and repudiating any suspicions of his guilt. His late congregation at Wabash avenue, which is one of the most wealthy and fashionable in Chicago, also sent him an urgent call to accept the pastorate—which, however, under the circumstances, he declined to accept. So far as his late congregation here is concerned, he seems to have the large majority with him—although the charges are preferred by some of the most influential men of his official Board.

Mr. Gray is married, but has no children In personal appearance he is slightly inclined to be negligee; is dark complexioned, with coal black hair which any lady might envy, and though generally quiet and rather retiring, converses with ease and fluency and is always entertaining. He has had little to say of his present unfortunate position and evidently keeps his own counsel, although that reticence is against argued him. Ill health for near-ly a year past has been his trouble and was the cause of the delay of his trial.

The Counsel for the defence, as now definitely decided upon are, Rev. S. H. Nesbit D. D., Ministerial and Messrs. James H. Hopkins and W. C. Moreland legal. The first of these Dr. Nesbit is the editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, a strong writer, and a man of great force of character. He is a self-made man and can trace his lineage as a "hardy son of toil" back to a nail factory, from whence he gradually made his way into the ministry and literatune, until he now occupies one of the chief editorial positions in the Methodist Episcopal denomination. He has the reputation of being very keen, and energetic and gifted with a pertinacity which has often brought him through and will doubtless stand him well in this case; a thorough acquaintance with the church law, and a pleasing elocution, fit him as a consleor in every respect. Dr. Nesbit is over forty years of age nearly half of which has been spent in the ministry.

The legal gentlemen, interested for the defense, are members of Christ Church, and so well known in our community that any further reference to them is needless. Their reputation at the bar is evidence that the legal features of the trial, so far as they are concerned, will be well attended to.

For the prosecution there is Rev. Dr. I. N. Baird, Rev. Dr. W. A. Davidson, ministerial, and J. W. F. White, Esq., legal. Dr. Baird preceded Dr. Nesbit as editor of the Advocate, but now fills the pulpit at Union Church, Fifth ward, Allegheny. He is considered one of the most scholarly ministers of his denomination. His writings are exceedingly neat and graceful, and full of thought; in all the usages and laws of the Church he is thoroughly at home, and is possessed of a rare faculty of self-command, which hardly ever fails to keep him serene amidst the stormiest excitement. He has no superior as a close, cool, reasoner, and will let nothing escape his notice.

Dr. Baird is everywhere esteemed as a polished Christian gentleman, and though dignified and retiring, is a minister of the highest standing in every respect. He has been in the ministry for perhaps over twenty years, and is not far from fifty years of age.

Dr. Davidson, the other ministerial counsel, is perhaps a few years younger than Dr. Baird, but has been in the ministry nearly the same length of time. His prevailing disposition is a "let us have peace" feeling, which is manifest in all his undertakings. He is a man of ability, as may be judged from the fact that he has always held those charges which were considered among the best. He writes with vigor, and in the pulpit is a forcible speaker. He drives with energy anything he undertakes in the ministerial line, but in a Church quarrel is not so much at home. His judgment is rarely at fault, however, and for that reason, as well as for his general ability, he will make an excellent counsel. Many of our readers who have read letters over the signature of "Amicus," will be interested in learning that this is Dr. Davidson's nom de plume.

J. W. F. White, Esq., the legal counsel, is a local preacher, and connected with the M. E. church at Sewickley. He is well-known hereabouts as a lawyer, and like the other legal gentlemen needs no introduction. The legal points he fails to watch in the case won't be worth much.

So the President, the accused, and the counsel will stand in this trial, which commences to-day, and around which so much interest seems to gather, an interest which cannot but increase in intensity until the result has been made known.

It has not yet been decided whether the investigation shall be conducted with closed doors or openly. That is a matter which the Committee only can decide this morning.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The Black Crook met with a glorious reception last night—the house having been literally crowded from pit to dome. And indeed it deserved the hearty reception accorded to it, for never before in Pittsburgh has any spectacular piece been so well put upon the stage; every detail was almost perfect to the minutest particular. The machinery was perhaps a little, a very little, slow to answer to the requirements of the sudden changes incident to the action, but one or two nights' usage will overcome this slight defect. It will be repeated to-night and every night until further notice.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE—Manager Beamer's new stars made a most favorable impression and the old favorites, Misses Minnie Jackson, Maggie Desmond and Messrs. Billy Carter, Pete Lee and Larry Tooley added to the laurels already won. A most mirth provoking programme is offered for this evening.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES—This house, as was evident last night, is not to be outdone by any in the excellence and variety of the entertainment afforded. A prodigious bill is presented for to-night.

CITY HALL.—The fair for St. Bridget's church, we are glad to say, is measurably well patronized, but not so well as the worth of the object for which it is being held deserves. Independently of the useful articles to be obtained, amusements of great variety are afforded and the privilege of talking to the fair vendors at the elegant booths, ought to more than compensate for the most lavish outlay.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—There assembled at this somewhat unpopular place of entertainment last night a fair, fashionable but uncrowded audience. We are at a loss to account for the slim attendance on the occasion of the first appearance of Miss Coombs. True, there is a prejudice dating back some years against this hall. The original reasons urged in opposition to it were reasonable, but, at the expense of thousands of dollars, the means of ingress and egress were made safe and the hall was made one of the most secure in the country. Miss Coombs comes among us fresh, after a dutiful study of five years—a rest of that period from the stage. We anticipated much in her interpretation of last evening, and were by no means disappointed. The "Lady of Lyons," in which she appeared, rises only to the higher line of drama when well played. It is neither tragedy, drama or comedy, and yet what is it? A sad, simple tale of life; a triumph of exertion; a reward of ambition; a confession of woman's weakness forriches; an acknowledgment of earnest love above all worldly considerations. Miss Coombs, as Pauline, was splendid. Never before on the Pittsburgh stage have we observed her equal in the portrayal of the character. In joy, pride, sorrow, anguish and remorse, she is equally at home. A true artiste, one worthy the plaudits of the coldest critic, she should have received a much warmer reception than that accorded her last evening. We are free to maintain that the play of the Lady of Lyons was never put better upon the stage than it was last evening at the Academy. The somewhat difficult role of Claude was admirably sustained by Mr. Robinson. If he did not follow the Fechter school of acting so closely, if he realized that his pattern of expression, his model of feeling, had died out of the appreciative heart, he would have proven much more worthy our praise. But we must award him place next to Adams, perhaps before him, in his clear, careful and tender rendition of his part. There were times when he touched the heart-chords more closely than ever a Booth reached them. He, indeed, throughout proved that he was no second place actor. The support was excellent throughout.

To-night "London Assurance" will be presented, with Miss Coombs as Lady Jay Spanker. We urge those of our readers who admire the legitimate, high-toned and elevated drama to visit the Academy this evening. They cannot but be pleased and satisfied.

THE LAST LECTURE of the Library Course will be given on Friday, when it is to be hoped there will be an enormous audience. Partly because, what with an unattractive lecture or two, and the fire on Sunday, the Association needs all the money it can get. But chiefly because Mr. Dougherty, the most brilliant speaker and one of the leading lawyers in the State, is to lecture to a Pittsburgh audience for the first time. We trust that he will meet with such an ovation as will bring him back often to delight our ears with his silver tongue.

THE COURTS.

Proceedings Yesterday.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—JUDGES STERRETT AND STOWE.

The case of B. H. Lubens vs. John Kaiser, was the first taken up before Judge Stowe. This was an action on a promissory note. Verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $530.92.

In the case of John Allinder vs. John Miller, a motion for a new trial was made, and reasons filed.

The case of Peter Crowal vs. Edward Magin was next called up. This was an action to recover damages for false arrest and imprisonment. The plaintiff in this case, it appears, purchased a quantity of goods from the defendant, and, failing to pay for them in accordance with his contract, was arrested on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences. On trial.

The first case taken up before Judge Sterrett was that of Lang & McKallip vs. Pittsburgh Library Hall Company. This was a sci. fa. on a mechanic's lien. Verdict for the plaintiffs in the sum of $123.55.

DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE KIRKPATRICK.

In the case of E. Rabenstein vs. The Pittsburgh Farmers and Mechanics Turnpike Road Company, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1,655.36.

The argument list was taken up by the Court in banc and will probably be continued through the present week.

THE movement for the suppression of Sunday newspapers in Chicago, by cutting off their supplies of advertisements, had a singular effect. The Chicago Tribune of Sunday, contained sixteen columns of "wants" and a vast amount of display advertisements—several columns more than usual.

STEPHEN GIRARD has an imitator in the late Robert Barnes, of Evansville, Indiana, who left $500,000 to build and endow a college of that State, enjoining that no missionary of any sect whatsoever shall ever hold office in the institution, or even be allowed to visit the premises.

ANY lady who speaks slightingly of ministers of religion is not a lady. We were much displeased with Miss Shallow (the Justice's daughter) the other evening. Referring to the Purchase decision, which pronounces the white dress to be the only legitimate garb of the clergy, the misguided young person said that she should henceforth call the parsons the surplice population.—Punch.

THERE is a singular law suit in Goodhue county. It seems that two religious societies quarreled as to which should bury the dead body of a man who had belonged to neither, and the defeated one, soon after the funeral, came with an order from the man's widow for the removal of his remains to their cemetery. The order was disregarded, and thus the matter has got into the courts.

THE Houston Telegraph gives a long account of the ceremonies upon the occasion of the presentation of a Lone Star flag and some pistols to a company of Texas rangers, who recently did good service in an encounter with the Indians, and also says: "We have a tanned scalp of one of the savages killed by these young men, at our office, sent to us by Lieut. Hill, of their company, and will take pleasure in showing it to those desirous of seeing it."

THE Philadelphia Age, speaking of actions at law for breaches of promise of marriage, sensibly says; "The very purpose of an engagement should be to give time for an acquaintance that may assure the parties of the prudence of a marriage between them. If the engagement developes an incompatibility, there is no greater wrong possible than a reluctant, enforced fulfilment of it. This does more lasting damage, causes more unhappiness, than a breach of promise."

ON a Georgia railroad the other day, a small boy was discovered standing very composedly on the cowcatcher, seemingly oblivious to the fact that he was doing anything out of the usual order. The boy was apparently about six years old. A policeman in the employ of the company caught the little fellow around his waist, and as the train stopped at a station, removed him from his perilous position, to the great disgust of the young hero, who seemed loth to leave his perch

ONE of the latest Californian crops is tarantulas. They are raised in Calaveras county, and sold, with their wonderful cells, to tourists, as curiosities. The cells are from three to eighteen inches deep, with a waterproof lining, coated over with a substance looking like chamois skin, but as fine as silk velvet, with a door or lid which they close after them when they go in; and when they have their young, they latch it, bolt it, and then seal it perfectly water-tight. They increase about one hundred and fifty fold annually.

THE boarders and transient customers of the Carson House, at Nicholasville, Ky., some thirty in number, were all poisoned a few days since. Some of the boarders were in a critical condition, but are now somewhat relieved and out of danger. Among the sufferers was the cook of the hotel, whose case was pronounced by the physicians attending as the most severe. It is supposed that the poisoning originated from using a corroded copper boiler, which had not been cleaned for some time.

THE Cincinnati Commercial, not satisfied with having published a sensation story about George Washington being the father of Col. Posey, now prints another letter which accuses the first President of habitual immorality and suggests that there were many besides young Posey who might with truth have called him father. As not one word or fact is brought up to prove this statement, we may at once set it down as a vile and damnable slander, but we do not know what to say or think of a newspaper which multiplies a thousand fold the evil of the lie by willfully sanctioning its diffusion.

LONG ago the alchemists supposed that could drinkable gold be obtained they would possess the elixir of life. The discovery of aqua regia by its power of dissolving that metal also dissolved that fallacy, and the alchemists gave up the search. Modern science has been more successful and has revealed the life-giving elixir, Pier, Dannals & Co.'s cream ale.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 48.

GOLD closed in New York on yesterday at 110¼@110⅜.

THE official returns of the election for Justice of the Supreme Court in Wisconsin, gives Lyon, Republican, over twelve thousand of a majority.

A JUDGE in a Richmond Court, recently imposed the maximum sentence on a man, convicted of improperly attempting to influence a trial, and gave as his reason for punishing him to the full extent of the law, that the defendant had assisted to elect him to administer the laws as an upright and impartial Judge, and that he knew no better plan to satisfy the defendant that he had voted properly, than by punishing his interference with a case on trial, with the utmost severity.

MONTGOMERY BLAIR is not disposed to remain in the back-ground. He recently made a speech at a Democratic meeting in Baltimore, in which he asserted that the same causes that brought on the late civil war were again at work. Mr. Blair is not so far wrong in his assertion, but we think by the timely application of the provisions of the Ku Klux bill, these "same causes" may be effectually destroyed. Having allowed them once to get far enough to create a civil war, Republicanism now proposes to deal with these individuals at a little earlier stage of the game.

ANOTHER ANTIQUITY.

One of our kind friends, who has recently favored us with numerous interesting facts connected with the early history of Pittsburgh, has sent us the following old advertisement which we believe has not been printed before since it appeared as a new advertisement in the journals of the day.

CITY ELECTION.

The freemen of the city of Pittsburgh, citizens of Pennsylvania or of the United States, who have resided within the bounds of the city at least one year immediately preceding the time of election, and have within that time paid a Borough or City tax, are notified to meet at the Court House in the said city on the first Tuesday of January next, and elect, by ballot, fifteen persons, qualified to serve as members of the House of Representatives, of this Commonwealth, to be members of the common council of said city; and nine persons, qualified to serve as Senators of the Commonwealth, to be members of select council of said city.

[Signed] CHARLES WILKINS, Burgess.
June 25th, 1816.

PRIVATE BILLS.

We have received positive assurances that, through the passage of the Apportionment bill, the dead-lock in the Legislature is ended. It is useless now to refer to the past to inquire on which party should fall the censure for the long delay. It is ended, or at least asserted to be, and a more important question than of the past presents itself. Some four or more weekly calendars of private bills, amounting in number to over one thousand, are awaiting action. Both Houses will now be exceedingly anxious to adjourn. Private bills are of but little interest to the members, save those of the district especially affected, and for this reason they are frequently rushed through carelessly and recklessly, filling our statute books with local laws, and burthening the community with special legislation. We cannot hope, do not expect, there will be any more care taken this session than heretofore. While we would urge on our own members to guard very carefully in both Houses, the rights of all the citizens they represent, we know that even should every man in the Allegheny delegation strive to resist the whirlwind of private bills that will be upon him this week, their united efforts will avail but little. To expect more, of either of them, than a diligent discharge of his duties, would be unjust, and we are satisfied that a diligent discharge of duty by a few men will be utterly powerless to resist the flood of interested special legislation now awaiting action.

But our members will all recollect that they were nominated and elected under resolutions that emphatically denounced special legislation. To avoid it altogether is impossible, but it is not, so far at least as our own county is regarded, impossible to weigh every bill affecting the interests of our citizens, and to allow only those bills to pass that are absolutely necessary. We submit that no bill should be allowed to become a law in the Legislature where the remedy proposed, or the grievance to be redressed, could be gained or had by ordinary legal process in our courts. We think the pledges made by all our members will carry out this construction, at least, and that no excuse ought to be made, and we are very sure none will be received, for passing any act in the Legislature that could have been acted upon here.

But there are numberless private bills that, independent of the fact alluded to, are not necessary to be passed this session. Every one of this nature, and they can be in many instances pointed out by the opposition made to them, should be defeated. If a locality does not seemingly know what is needed, if the citizens of that particular district are divided in opinion, and a respectable opposition made to the passage of a local bill, there could be no ground of censure against our members, who have been elected on their pledges to oppose special legislation for defeating a measure, local and special in its nature, where even the citizens of the locality were divided in opinion with regard to the merits of the proposed measure.

We mention these facts, because the Republican party is an avowed opponent of special legislation and an equally open advocate for a Constitutional Convention. As a party, that Convention is regarded as the future remedy for the ills arising from special legislation. The bill in reference to it, has been played with, and again and again brought up in the Senate, only to be laughed at and thrust back again into its old hiding place. There never will be a Constitutional Convention, so long as private special legislation with all its bribery and corruption is allowed to go untrammelled and unchecked. It requires an effort on the part of firm, upright and conscientious men to bring special legislation into disfavor. There are so many reasons to advance why this little bill or that little bill should pass that there is scarcely a private bill on the calenders, that is not covered all over with excuses and good reasons. The place to begin is, with those private bills that may be termed individual special legislation. Where a right is to be granted to a single individual, or to a corporation for their own exclusive benefit, and to the injury perhaps of others, rather than to the general advantage of the citizens of the locality. Let such bills await the action of the Constitutional Convention. We do not go too far when we say, that that class of bills, is the most pernicious known in the Legislature. These are the bills where money can be lavishly used, votes bought and bribery affected.

We hope that our members will at least guard our own county from special legislation, as far as possible, and allow in no instance such bills to be passed for this community, without carefully weighing their merits and demerits, and that whenever a doubt arises over the necessity of immediate action, that the bill will be set aside to await the action of a Convention.

THE DEMOCRATIC ADDRESS.

The address of the Democratic Committee has come to light, but it gives none. Regarded as an ingenious production, it has scarcely any merit, and as a clear exposition of the principles of the Democratic party, it has no merit whatever. For over ten years past Democracy has been prating over Republican corruption and Republican oppression. It has rung the changes on these different charges, until it has presented them in every conceivable shape, and can hardly be credited with any ingenuity in again presenting to the world the same old round of vituperation and abuse, under whose banners it has so long disgraced and degraded itself with both infamy and defeat. From the tone of a few Democratic journals, we were led to believe, that there would be some slight concession made to the understanding and intelligence of the voters of the United States, and that an issue would be plainly and explicitly set forth on which Democracy proposed to contest the coming Presidential campaign. But there has evidently been a serious fight over the preparation of the address, and Southern Democracy has again triumphed. So far from creating a new issue, it fails to create any, and presents a document that bears on its face, not much other than treachery and deceit.

That the address should take ground favoring free trade is not wonderful, but glosses it over with the specious name of reform, without venturing boldly even to announce that it favors that issue. If we are wrong in arriving at this conclusion, our cotemporary, the Post, will correct us, and will probably state, as it so freely and fully indorses the address, whether it is a free trade document. We are particular on this point, because we recall to mind that, during the recent local election, when Mr. Hopkins was the Democratic candidate for Congress, certain charges were made with regard to his free trade proclivities, that were indignantly denied by the Post, that urged his election. From the fact, therefore, that that journal, as consistent a Democratic journal as is published in the Union, has lauded the address of the Committee, we are forced to conclude that it argues with us, that on the question of free trade the document has been left a little vague, so that it might completely answer the desires of any side of the question. With this exception there is positively nothing in the address that approaches an issue, but in lieu thereof we have the old worn out cry of corruption and oppression.

If the Democratic party could be allowed to slip through the coming campaign without an issue of its own, the address might have some weight. But that is scarcely possible. If, for the sake of the argument, it was admitted that there did exist both corruption and oppression in the Republican ranks, what inducement can the Democracy hold out to the citizens to make any change. What State or body, under Democratic rule, can be pointed out, as illustrative of the purity of the Democratic party. For ten years it has not been trusted with national power. The reason is, that in 1860 it forfeited the confidence of the people. There is no use denying this fact, for it is now a matter of history. What has it done since, to regain the confidence it lost then. If we turn to New York, under Democratic rule, we find corruption positively worse than in any other State of the Union to day. If we glance at our own Democratic Senate, we find it has overidden all law, and been revolutionary from the second day of its session. In a word, Democracy, look where you may, can find no spot under Democratic rule, that will contrast favorably with even the charges, false as they are, it brings against Republicanism.

It must, therefore, to succeed, raise some issue, and in this, the address is as silent as the grave. For weeks past it has been directly charged that one of the issues of the coming campaign would be in reference to reconstruction. Senator Morton was abused for making such a declaration. We were told that the Democratic address would place that party in its true position on this question. Indeed the New York World informed us that these measures must be abandoned in the coming campaign, and it went so far as to declare that Southern men must be guided in this respect by northern Democrats. Alas! for the conclusion. The address is issued, but there is nothing said about the position occupied by the Democracy on reconstruction. A few ragged ideas, hanging out shreds here and there, are held up for exhibition. That is all.—Southern Democracy does not propose to be guided by northern Democrats, and the effort to keep reconstruction out of the coming contest has evidently been abandoned.

We assert this, because honesty is always bold and emphatic. It would have taken but few lines and far less labor to have plainly stated that the Democratic party accepted the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments, and regarded negro suffrage as "irreversible." The address does not say so, and has not met the question. On the contrary, it has indicted the Republican party, just as it has done for years, and then laid down the pen, afraid to take a single step in its own behalf. That same indictment has been many times before the people, and with what result, Democracy can state. The truth is, the address leaves the party in a worse condition than before it was published, for from its silence, every honest thinking man will be satisfied that Senator Morton was correct.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Exciting Election--The Freedmen--An Elegant Banking House--Col. D. L. Eaton, etc.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 20, 1871.

I write you in the midst of the most exciting and important election that has ever occurred in this city or district, or, properly speaking, Territory. I have witnessed and participated in many of the stirring and patriotic scenes enacted in our grand old Republican county of Allegheny during the past ten years, but the enthusiastic patriotism, devotion and substantial hard work of Republicans here during the present canvass have surpassed any similar efforts within my knowledge. Gen. Chipman, the Republican candidate for delegate to Congress, is sustained by the loyal, enterprising and progressive people, and his opponent, Mr. Merrick, is the favorite of the Conservatives, or, to use plain English, the rebel element that disgraces this city and all portions of the South. One peculiar feature of the campaign here is that our American citizens of African descent form a large proportion of the voters, and it is amusing to see the efforts put forth by Mr. Merrick and his confederates to gain the friendship, and especially the votes, of our colored brethren. But the latter know who were their friends in the past, and who were instrumental in not only giving them freedom from the shackles of their Democratic rebel masters of the South, but clothing them with all the attributes of citizenship, and in devising ways and means to promote their moral, social and intellectual advancement. I have attended some of the mass meetings recently held in this city, and heard speeches from members of the once down-trodden and despised race that would have done honor to the most accomplished and eloquent white orators in the land. Ten years ago a black man was not permitted to enter the capitol of the nation as a spectator. Now they have five representatives in the lower house of Congress, and some of the most responsible municipal offices of this city are filled by colored men.

Our Democratic brethren have often asserted that the black race were incapable of taking care of themselves, that they were worthless and thriftless as a people, &c. In response to that I will give a brief history of the Freedman's Savings Bank, which has its chief office in this city, and branch offices in thirty-two (32) of the principal cities of the South. The Bank received its charter in March, 1865, and began its work in 1866. In five years of its existence there have been deposited $19,952,947. The total now due to depositors is $2,455,836, and the assets of the company reach $2,463,963 in United States bonds and bonds and mortgages. No financial company in the Union ever had a more flattering success. The company at first was unable to pay interest on its deposits; it now pays six per cent., and the number of its depositors increases so rapidly that the company is hardly able to keep pace with the work. They are now erecting a building on Pennsylvania avenue opposite the Treasury Department, which, when completed, will be an ornament even in this city of magnificent buildings, and one of the grandest banking institutions in the country. It will cost at least a half million of dollars.

Col. D. L. Eaton, one of the former editors of the GAZETTE, and known for his advocacy of Republican principles during the candidacy of General Fremont, is now in charge of the Freedman's Savings Bank, and the unparalleled success of the bank is due in a great measure to his admirable executive ability, sterling integrity of character, and indomitable energy and perseverence in the discharge of his duties.

The many friends of Col. Eaton in Pittsburgh will be gratified to learn that he has recently received from President Grant the appointment of member to the Legislative Senate of the Territory of Columbia, under the recent act of Congress, and in connection with this I take pleasure in calling your attention to the following notice of Col. E. published in the Daily Star of this city:

"Daniel L. Eaton was educated at Bowdoin College, Maine, where he graduated in 1851; studied law with George F. Shepley, now Judge of the United States Circuit Court; settled in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in 1854, and entering earnestly into the canvass for General Fremont in 1856, accepted the editorial chair of the Pittsburgh GAZETTE, where he remained till the outbreak of the civil war. Hon. E. M. Stanton, himself of Pittsburgh, appointed him a paymaster in the United States Army, where he served till November, 1866. Subsequently he accepted the position of Actuary of the Freedman's Saving and Trust Company, &c. He is held in high respect by all who know him. The Colonel has made his mark as one of the enterprising, progressive, Christian men of this city, and justly merits the encomium of "well done, good and faithful servant."

I had intended giving a description of the new and splendid building of the Agricultural Department, together with its vast conservatories of flowers, fruit trees, &c., and highly cultivated grounds, but will have to reserve that and other matters of interest for a future letter.

Washington is now clothed in all its vernal grandeur, and never presented a more attractive appearance. D. R. S.

Letter from England--London vs. Paris--Club Comforts--Oxford and Cambridge Boat Race---Carrier Doves--English and French.

BRIGHTON, April 3, 1871.

It is not often that one has so much to say, and yet so little which directly interests the American public, as falls to the lot of your correspondent at this time; and if his efforts are a trifle prosy, it is to be hoped your many readers will remember that the writer is not in Paris (and would prefer not to be), under the Commune and the National Guard, but is undergoing a siege in foggy London, where things move slow, and where history is not the work of a day, but of a century—under a Government which supports Royalty, but the throne has a power so limited, it is difficult to realize it has an existence.

The unsettled state of France still detains many of our countrymen here and like old "voyageurs," they make the best of it and are enjoying themselves; they are "fraternizing" with their English cousins, and find London a home-like place and better suited to an American's idea of comfort than the frivolous French capital, and all unite in saying that they like England more the longer they stay. To know London well, acquaintance with an English Gentleman is indispensible, for he will kindly show a stranger the habits and customs of that peculiar being "Johnny Bull," and my experience has been that at his Club you see him "au naturel." Club-life is one of the institutions of the country. Every gentleman is a member of one Club and often of several. They are nowhere better appointed than in London, and although they are on a grand scale, many of them costing sums approaching a million of dollars, yet a member can at his club live in the most aristocratic and sumptuous manner for a modest sum. Two hundred and fifty pounds, or in our money, $1,250, would pay all his bills, including lodging, clothing and everything. An American on entering the drawing or dining-room of an English club, at once notices the home-like atmosphere therein. Perhaps there are thirty to forty Englishmen in the room, but there is no noise. Conversation is in an under-tone, servants move quietly about as if they had sufficient time to do their work, and one feels that at last he has found a "haven of rest," where he can enjoy his comforts, and yet no female dare intrude.

As we advance in civilization, it is to be hoped we may have more of these well-regulated institutions at home, for I am quite sure they are needed, and would be of great benefit to our young men and a source of enjoyment and improvement to others.

The past week has been replete with amusements, college atheletic sports, steeple chases, hurdle races, and Saturday the great Oxford-Cambridge boat race, in which the Cambridge again were the winners (as you will know by cable long ere this reaches you) Their rowing was superb, and it was easy to see their finished, regular stroke was superior to their competitors, but the Oxford men were good and true. Many reasons are given for their defeat, poor boat, bad steering, &c. The fact is they were beaten because they were not as well up in their business.

Half England was there, four miles of people lined both sides of the Thames. The ladies were out, dressed in blue either dark or light as they sided with Oxford or Cambridge, and as blue is becoming to the English complexion, they all looked charming on Saturday.

There are three places to see the race: Putney, the start, Barnes, midway, and Mortlake the finish. I thought best to see the end of it, and so took the train for the latter place, I was early on the ground, and good places were to be had at a reasonable price, and having secured standing room above the common herd I amused myself by watching the people locate themselves and the market for good positions advance, as the time drew nigh and the crowd increased. I had paid half a crown for my place; the same location sold later for five, then ten shillings, and later was not to be had for money. How an "oil man" would enjoy such a corner in the market. Before every one had settled himself there was a shout and the boats came round the bend in the river closely followed by three steamers. Cambridge ahead was the cry. No one was disapointed at the result, in fact one carrier pigeon bearing the news of Cambridge's victory was "un fait" three moments before it was "in fact accomplished" and five minutes after, hundreds of these useful mesengers were circling about above our heads. The close of the race was a lively sight and one not apt to be soon forgotten. The music of the band the shouts of the friends of Cambridge, the pigeon shooting out all about us, the rush to catch a glimpse of the men as they slowly rowed about, after the winning stake was passed and the rush to the cars made a tumult such as I had never witnessed before. I was bound to the spot for full fifteen minutes and then as I gradually awakened to the reality of things, I wondered how I ever should get back to London. I found it easy enough, I allowed myself to be forced by a crowd to the station and into a carriage, the right one of course, and after an hour or so delay reached the Charing Cross in safety; but I saw, as we passed Barnes and Putney, thousands of sorry-looking faces. Poor fellows, they would not see London for two hours probably, the first carriages were only for the strong and those who were willing to be forced—"no weak ones need apply."

The marriage of the Princess Louise and the opening of the Royal Albert Hall by the Queen, have given the people an opportunity to see royalty of late. I did not have enough curiosity to take the trouble, hence cannot give you a description, but according to the "times," these events were great. By the way, since the name of England aroused so much bad feeling in the French Assembly, Englishmen have not felt like sending the poor of Paris their money and provisions—little thanks any one will receive for sympathy with such a demoralized rabble It almost seems wrong to encourage them in their idleness by sending anything, save seed, for no sooner do they get free of a foreign enemy then they fight among themselves. But after all, even in the depth of their degradation, the French people will always be favorites, and the world treats France like a spoit child.

"GUS."

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

TRANSPLANTING ASPARAGUS.

Prepare the ground for the reception of the roots by applying a liberal amount of good stable manure, the older and more decomposed the better. There is no danger of putting on too much, for asparagus is one of those plants that will thrive in the richest soils, and its value depends almost entirely upon the rapidity of its growth. The manure should be worked into the soil deeply, and thoroughly mixed up with it, not put in layers as is often done. Nothing less than eighteen inches in depth of rich soil will make a good asparagus bed. When the ground is made ready and harrowed or made level, open trenches six inches deep and four feet apart, either by plowing two furrows, throwing the soil to the right or left, or with a spade. Place the plants in the bottom of these trenches, and two feet apart. Spread the roots out level, and then cover and rake or harrow the surface. If the soil is light it is a good plan to roll or pack it down over the plants. Some old-time gardeners, when preparing an asparagus bed, dig the soil from two to three feet deep. place stone in the bottom, and then fill with coarse rubbish, manure and soil, and cover the plants twelve to eighteen inches deep; but modern ideas are against such a practice. If the roots are not covered more than six inches, they will start much earlier in spring than if placed deeper. Of course, if you want white stalked asparagus, you must plant deep: but no one who knows anything about this delicious vegetable will purchase or cook such stuff, for it is only that portion of the stalk which is exposed to the light and air that is fit to eat These elements are as necessary to make asparagus tender and healthy food, as their absence is in the preparation of celery for the same purpose.—Rural New Yorker.

MIXING SOILS.

There often exist, on the same farm, materials entirely separate from each other, which, if mixed together would add greatly to the fertility of the land. A neighboring farmer had seven or eight acres excellent black muck or peat, averaging seven feet deep, which might have been underdrained at a moderate expense and rendered a fertile field, but which the owner suffered to lie idle and useless year after year. Much of his adjacent farm consisted of dry ridges and knolls, out of which the vegetable matter had entirely disappeared, which might have been benefited by this muck. The work could have been done in winter at little expense—but there, for half a lifetime, lay the great muck bed under water, and the dry ridges parching in the summer sun. All that was needed was mixing the different materials of the farm. Sub soils are frequently quite different in character from the worked soil above. We once saw a striking illustration of this difference. An open ditch, some two feet deep and many rods in length, had been dug to drain a small pond. The earth taken from this ditch was thrown by the shovel and scattered back a rod or more on each side over the surface of the field, which was afterwards sown with wheat. The succeeding summer was unfavorable to this crop; and while the rest did not average a product of more than five bushels per acre, the portion which had been dressed with sub soil, yielded by estimate, at the rate of twenty bushels.—Experimental Farm Journal.

SODDING.

Thousands of dollars are expended every year in sodding spaces in yards, gardens &c., where hundreds of dollars would more than pay and secure a much better sod. Instead of hauling turf sometimes for a mile or more, containing generally old weeds and varieties of coarse grasses which injure the appearance of the grass-plat, prepare the ground as for a garden-crop and sow the fine mixed seeds prepared for lawns and to be purchased at the agricultural and our best grocery stores. In a month the plat will be a beautiful fresh green, and in two or three months it will be all that the most fastidious could desire and incomparably superior to any old turf. Such a grass-plat or lawn can be secured with a tithe of the trouble and expense of the old, worn-out weedy soil.—Germantown Telegraph.

HOW TO RAISE HORSERADISH.

Select a good deep soil, manure well, and then throw your ground up into ridges, about three and a half feet a part, with plow or spade, rake evenly, leaving the ridge a little flat on the top, then take your hoe-handle and make holes about three or four inches deep, and from fifteen to eighteen inches apart on the centre of the ridge; now drop into these holes a piece of radish two inches long, cut from slim roots, too small to scrape—those from a quarter to half an inch in diameter will do. Cultivate the same as any other garden vegetable, taking care to keep the earth drawn up a little. In the fall before hard freezing comes on, dig and store the roots where they can be got at easily for use, at any time. They can be put in sand in the cellar, or kept with potatoes. —Journal of the Farm.

REMEDY FOR DOG DISTEMPER.

A handful of common salt thrown down the throat of a dog which has the distemper, and the mouth kept closed until it goes down, is an infallible remedy. One dose is enough in the early stage of the disease; if given later, it may have to be repeated.

COOKERY FOR THE SICK.

Under the above head we find the following receipts in Home and Health:

Beverage of Figs and Apples.—Have two quarts of water boiling; split six figs, and cut two apples into six or eight slices each; boil the whole together twenty minutes; pour the liquor into a basin to cool, and pass through a sieve when it is ready for use. The figs and apples may be drained for eating with a little boiled rice.

Currant Drink.—To a pint of fresh gathered currants (stripped) put a pint of water; let them boil together ten minutes or a quarter of an hour, then strain and sweeten to taste; a few raspberries added give a pleasant flavor. The same may be produced in winter by simmering two tablespoonfuls of currant jelly in half a pint of water.

Mutton Broth.—Take one pound of scrag of mutton, put it into a saucepan with two pints of water and a little salt; let it simmer gently for two hours; strain it through a sieve, and when cold carefully remove every particle of fat. It may be thickened with a little arrowroot or ground rice as required.

Liebig's Beef Tea.—Chop a pound of lean beef as fine as for sausage-meat; mix with a pint of cold water; put it over a slow fire; when it has boiled five minutes, strain through a coarse cloth; salt to taste.

Apple Water.—Slice two large apples, put them into a jar, and pour over them one pint of boiling water. Cover close for an hour; pour off the fluid, and sweeten if necessary.

Apple Tea.—Roast eight fine apples in the oven, or before the fire; put them in a jug with two spoonfuls of sugar, and pour over them a quart of boiling water. Let it stand one hour near the fire.

Bran Tea—Invaluable for softening the throat, and most nourishing for the sick and aged. Take two or three tablespoonfuls of middle-sized bran (not coarsest, as that is greasy); put it into a jug, and pour on it one quart of boiling water; let it stand for about a quarter of an hour, and then pour off the water from the bran. The tea may be sweetened with white sugar or fine honey. When wine is good for the patient it may be added, or a little lemon juice. It is, however, not unpleasant without either of these additions. A wine-glassful of this tea may be taken many times in the day. Several persons in France have been kept alive with no other nourishment for weeks.

Meat Jelly.—Take half a pound of mutton, half a pound of beef, and half a pound of veal or pork, with a small piece or bone of bacon; put in enough water to keep it from burning, and cover it close; let it simmer for three or four hours till the juice of the meat is entirely out, then strain it off, and let it stand till cold. If there is any fat, it can be removed. A person recovering from an illness must not be left all night without food. Some of this jelly placed beside him, where he can reach it easily, is a very excellent thing.

CURE FOR CORNS.

It is not the great evils alone which afflict humanity. There are minor ones of a troublesome as well as of a painful kind, that often interfere with our pleasures and make life burthensome—provocatives alike of bad temper and wrathful words, and among these are corns and bunions, which interfere so often and so sadly with pedestrians. All sorts of remedies have been resorted to to eradicate corns and in spite of them, they, like Banquo's ghost, will up. No sooner have you pared one with the knife than they sprout up again as if they were a normal condition that belonged to the human foot. This is not so. A man by the name of Robinson has prepared something in the shape of a corn pencil, which is a perfect solvent of corns, and not only of corns, but likewise all sorts of thickenings and indurations, whether upon the feet or other parts of the body—warts, moles, hard and soft corns are so completely removed by Robinson's Corn Solvent as to give no further trouble. A medical gentleman informed the writer that he removed a troublesome corn from his foot which had bothered him for years, and it is now as well as ever. Numerous other persons have certified to its value in removing the worst kind of corns, and as for warts it removes them without the slighest inconvenience whatever and without pain. One gentleman alleges that he having suffered from corns for about ten years, says: "I take pleasure in recommending Robinson's Patent Corn Solvent, which, after three weeks' use, quite removed corns that had troubled me for years, although I had tried all sorts of preparations before without obtaining any relief." The Solvent acts upon corns and warts by penetrating and destroying vitality in the roots, thus enabling nature to throw off the diseased cuticle or excrescence, and leaves the skin underneath in a healthy condition. Its application is very simple, and if used with a little care the most obstinate corn or wart may be removed without pain. A correspondent, speaking of these pencils, says: "Every one that I sell of these solvents of your make recommends it to others." Sold at fifty cents each, or by the dozen or gross at rates to allow a good profit to the retailer. To be had only at Keyser's great medicine store, 167 Liberty street.

TRY IT.

It is amusing that the feeble should totter, with uncertain steps, over the face of the earth, in danger every day of falling victims to the morbid influences by which we are all surrounded, when a tested and proven vegetable tonic, capable of endowing them with the vigor they need, is procurable in every city, town and settlement. It might reasonably be thought that after the twelve years' experience which the world has had of Hostetter's Bitters, all would know that its effect is to prevent disease.

At certain seasons the atmosphere is surcharged with the seeds of intermittents, remittents, rheumatism, pulmonary disorders, bilious complaints and the like. Persons whose nervous systems are relaxed are the first to succumb to these distempers. Brace up the physical energies then with this potential vegetable tonic. It is the most powerful recuperant which the botanic kingdom has ever yielded to patient research and experiment. Try it. The blindest discipline of the old medical dogmas will at least admit that a tonic and alterative, compounded of approved herbs, roots and barks can do no harm, while the testimony of thousands invites a trial of its virtues.

Vigor is the thing most needed in these cases as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and Hostetter's Bitters is the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the officinal receipts and prescribed this harmless tonic as a preventive and cure for all cases of chills and fever.

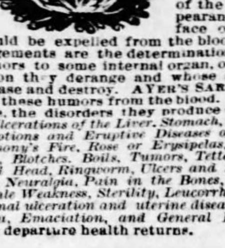
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. NEW YORK, April 24, 1871.

Gold firm at 110⅝@110¾. Coin payments at Sub-Treasury to-day on account of the May Interest, which amount to $1,000,000. Loans made at from 1 to 3 per cent. Clearances, $32,000,000. Washington dispatches say that the Treasury decides that commissions on subscriptions to the new loan are to be paid in coin. Governments firm without any decided change in price. Stocks opened strong but finished with no abatement; a speculative excitement in some of the active stocks, and the highest price of the season reached; Harlem advanced to 135, New York Central to 103⅜; Ohio to 55⅜ at the Board; St. Louis & Iron Mountain noticeably active at 61⅝@61¾; this buoyancy continued until near the close, when a scene of great excitement ensued, as prices suddenly broke down from ⅜ to 2⅜ per cent. on leading railway stocks. There was a great pressure to sell for a time, and a large number of weak holders were shaken out of their stocks. This heavy fall was succeeded by a rally and final return to the lowest prices of the day. The activity extended throughout the list, although dealings were most conspicuous in Lake Shore, New York Central, Ohio & Mississippi, Union Pacific, Wabash & Pacific Mail. Express stocks continue strong. Money steady at 7@6. Southern State bonds at second board were strong in North and South Carolinas, which sold at 62⅛. Remainder of list firm.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 24, 1871.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of prime, in crocks and kegs, at 70@75 per gallon.

ASHES—Common Soda, 3⅜@4; refined do, 4⅜; Pots 7⅜@7⅜; Pearls, 9@9⅜.

APPLES—The demand is fully up to the supply and prices are well maintained, $4@5 per bbl for fair to good and $6@6,50 for prime to choice.

BUTTER—The receipts are increasing and the market is easier, though as yet there is no decline in prices. 33@35c for prime to choice. There is little or no demand for the common grades.

BROOM CORN—Is quiet and unchanged; sales at 4@6 cts per lb, according to quality.

BEANS—$1,50@2,00 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 28@30 cts.

CHEESE—Prime York State Goshen, 18@18⅜. New Ohio quoted at 15@16.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands, 21@21⅜c, in a jobbing way; usual advance for small lots.

CORNMEAL—Demand very light and prices unchanged; small sales at 90 cts per bushel.

CANDLES—Quoted at 12 cts for mould, and 19 for star.

CANNED GOODS—Demand is improving. Tomatoes, $2,75 per dozen; peaches, $3,75 per dozen in 3-lb cans and $2,50 for 2-lb; Winslow's Corn, $2,75@3. Blackberries, $3.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@2,75 per bbl; Johnstown, $2,25; Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,50; Land Plaster, $3,50@3,75.

CRANBERRIES—Season nearly over; quoted at $12@15 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—The stock of apples is large, though mostly of a common and inferior grade—there is a fair demand for prime bright; we continue to quote at 6@7cts per lb. There is less inquiry for peaches, though the stock in this market is not large and prices remain unchanged; quarters, 10@10⅜; mixed, 11@12; halves, 13@14.

EGGS—The receipts continue comparatively light and the supply in this market is lower than it has been for several months; fresh packed sell readily at 16c, and 17 will probably be the ruling price to-morrow, as holders generally are expecting a still further advance—some of them holding for 18c.

FEATHERS—Prime geese feathers are scarce and in demand, with sales to the trade at 73@74—usual advance for small lots.

FLOUR—Is reported quiet and unchanged. We continue to quote at $6,75@7,00 for fair to good spring extras; $7,25 for choice Minnesota baker's flour; $6,75@7,00 for good red winter wheat; and $6,25@7,50 for white. Rye Flour, $6,00.

GRAIN—Wheat is in steady demand and prices, under the influence of continued light receipts, are fully maintained, $1,40@1,45 for red and $1,50@1,55 for white. Oats firm but quiet—dealers generally expecting an advance with the next 30 days; there is little or no margin at present prices as they can scarcely be replaced at the selling price at the present time; we now quote at 56@57 buying, and 59@60 selling—small lots, 3@5 cts higher—we are cognizant of contracts having been made at 58 cts delivered here, and to-day it would be difficult to realize anything over 58 for a round lot here. Rye is quiet and unchanged at $1—but little offering and not much inquiry for it. Corn is still reported quiet and unchanged, 68 for mixed ear in bulk; 70 for mixed shelled; and 72@73 for prime yellow do. Barley is quiet and unchanged, 80@85 for good to prime spring and 90@95 for fall.

GROCERIES—Coffees continue weak, and our advices from both Baltimore and New York intimate that holders generally are anxious to realize, and that still further concessions are probable. Sugars strong; raw sugars have advanced already and it is very likely that refineds will be put up also, as they must of necessity sympathize with raws. Syrups, particularly the best grades, are held stiff at the recent advance, and stocks of this particular kind are comparatively light but demand is not so active since prices have been put up. Rice is firm and in light supply but unchanged.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 20⅜; Prime, 18⅜; Good, 17⅜; Fair, 16⅜; Roasting, 15@16.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Elders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; Loverings, 82; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11⅜; prime, 10⅜ good, 10⅜; fully fair, 10; Porto Rico Sugars 10⅜@11⅜; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11⅜@12⅜.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 13⅜; A Coffee, 12⅜; "B," 12⅜; Extra C, 12⅜; C. yellow 12⅜.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime, 68; good, 65.

TEAS—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 40; Good, $1 10; Fair, $1. Lower grades down to 70cts. G. P Fancy, $1 50; good, $1 25; fair, $1 10; Imperial Fancy, $1 40; good, $1 25; fair, $1; Oolong fancy, $1 25; good, 80cts; fair, 60@70c; Souchong fancy, $1 20; good, 90c; fair, 70@80c, Japan Fancy, $1; good, 90c; fair, 75c.

CATTLE.

In addition to the 45 cars of western cattle there was equivalent to 3 loads driven in from the adjoining country, making in all 48 cars or about 860 head, with this large number and but few buyers, aside from the butchers, the market was very sluggish and at the close there were several lots of "odd and ends" left over unsold. Included in the offerings were several car loads of bulls, of better quality and in better condition than is usual for this class of stock, and they were about all sold, and that, too, at very fair prices. Prime to extra butchers stock sold at 7⅜@7⅜, and fair to medium at 6⅜@7. There were but few stock cattle on sale, and there was not much inquiry for them as stock growers and farmers have become impressed with the belief that there is not difference enough between the prices of stock and fat cattle.

S. Marks & Bro. report 82 head of fair to extra butchers stock, at 6⅜@7⅜.

S. Shamberg & Hass 37 head of good to prime butchers stock, at 6,62⅜@7,37⅜.

Rothchilds & Zeigler 57 head of good to fancy butchers stock, from Chicago, at 7@8⅜.

Traurman & Lobman 66 head of good to prime butchers stock, at 6,60@7,75.

M. Kauffman 8 head of Washington Co. steers and cows, at $45@70 per head.

M. Varner 35 head of fair to good butchers stock, at 6@7.

E. Katz reports two car loads of medium to prime butchers stock, at 6⅜@7⅜.

Keefer & Beyer 3 loads from Chicago, at 6⅜@7⅜.

Hazlewood & Blackstock report 30 head western stock, and 18 from Lawrence Co. Penna., at 6⅜@7⅜.

Emerick & Co. sold 23 head Ohio steers for Herbst, at 6⅜@7 cts.

Jacob Needy 25 head at 6⅜@7⅜.

Jas. Hanlin 10 head of Washington Co. steers, at 6@6,50.

Carr & McAllister sold 36 head from Chicago, at 6⅜@7 cts.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 3 cars bulls, at 4⅜@6; 2 loads of cows and steers, at 5⅜@7.

Greenwald & Kahn sold 51 head of still feed steers for Guckenheimer Bro., at 6@7⅜; 37 head Ohio stock, at 6@7⅜.

J. Unger sold 10 head of fresh cows, at $50@65.

SHEEP.

The supply of Sheep was again small, about 400, and, as might be expected, they were sold for the full price. Wooled sheep sold at from $4 per head to 7⅜c per pound; and clipped may be quoted at 4@6⅜c—one bunch of fancy averaging 139 lbs, brought 8⅜. Spring Lambs, $2,75@3,25 per head.

Jacob Keefer, 72 head Butler county mixed sheep, (wooled) at 5⅜@7⅜.

James Shaw, 58 head, (wooled) from Mercer county, at from $4 per head to 7c per pound.

J. F. Alburn, 74 head, (clipped) from Lawrence county, at $3@6 per head; 7 spring lambs at $2,75.

Richter & Babst, 41 head of commonish wooled sheep at $3,25@5,25 per head.

Peter Sheitemantle sold to P. Tesh, 52 head of extra (clipped) sheep, averaging a little over 115 lbs, at 6⅜; 40 head at 5@6⅜; 63 spring lambs at $2,50@3,25.

HOGS.

The supply was unusually light, to-day, but the demand continues limited and prices, in sympathy with other markets, are higher. We quote, in a retail way, at 6⅜@7c.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 24, 1871.

The market was very tame and very dull to-day, as usual, the sales being very light, and while operators are all anxious to do business, there is no chance to make a movement—in the present condition of affairs, it is out of the question. The producers still seem determined to hold crude up to a point that consumers cannot afford to pay; and instead of being willing to make concessions, they have resolved, it would seem from the tone of the advices from the creek within the past few days, to establish a still further advance; not satisfied with the heavy load they are now carrying, they have determined to add more to it, and are making offers to buy at present prices instead of wanting to sell. There is one thing certain, there are but comparatively few buyers outside of the producing regions; refiners neither here at Cleveland or any other place, can pay the present prices, and the consequence is, stocks are steadily accumulating, and the consumption is steadily diminishing.

CRUDE.

Firmer, and while the offerings are light, the demand is limited and restricted almost wholly to a few shorts, who are buying occasionally to cover short sales. We have but a single sale reported to-day, 1000, seller April, at 10⅜—an advance as compared with last week. Futures are also firmer, but the inquiry is very light and in the absence of sales it is difficult to give quotations.

REFINED.

Firmer; April 22⅜; May 23⅜; June 23⅜; July 24⅜; buyers' option all year, 25⅜@6. We are reported a sale for last half of May, seller, at 23⅜, on board cars here. April to June, inclusive, 22⅜ for April; 22⅜ for May and 24⅜ for June.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly, with 3 feet in the channel. Weather clear and pleasant, and the prospects for rain and a rise are not very encouraging.

The arrivals since the date of our last redort include the Skillinger from Portsmouth, and the Julia No. 2 from Zanesville. The Skillinger experienced some difficulty in getting through Brunot and was finally obliged to lighten. The Julia had but little trouble.

The Argosy departed for Wheeling last evening, as did also the Skillinger for Portsmouth.

The Julia returns to Zanesville to-day, leaving at 4 P. M.

The St. Charles arrived at Cincinnati on Saturday and goes on the ways for repairs.

The Brill, Capt. M. A. Cox, is announced for Nashville. She is an excellent light draft boat, and is well suited for the times.

The Wild Duck and Rover are still loading for St. Louis and will be ready to leave on the first rise.

—The St. Louis Republican of Saturday says: "The tow boat Ironsides was passing up stream yesterday with a tow of barges, close astern to packets moored at the landing. When near the H. S. Turner it became manifest to those who were looking on that a collision was imminent. The Ironsides steamed right ahead. One of her barges struck the Turner just astern of the wheelhouse and demolished her afterguard on the starboard side very effectually. No damage was effected on the hull. The Turner was not seriously damaged, and will be speedily repaired. A few hundred dollars will make her all right again.

—The Cincinnati Commercial of Sunday says: Captain George W. Neare has returned from a visit to the Charles Bodmann lodged on the rocks on the falls. He reports that she lies on a rough ledge of rocks, with about twenty of her timbers broken. She has been wedged up so as to lay smooth. It being impossible to launch her, she will have to remain where she is until the river rises sufficient to float her off the rocks. There is a fine stallion on board the boat, valued at $4,000, belonging to John Smith, of this city.

—We find the following in the Louisville Ledger: "The canal is still blockaded. The LaClaire has been waiting 33 hours to come through, and the Sam. S. Haie and Alice Dean are at the foot of the canal awaiting their turn. It seems to us that if the canal was properly managed steamboats would not be compelled to suffer such loss as they do, owing to the closing of the canal by barges, etc. If favors are shown at all it should be to the steamboats."

—The New Orleans Republican says: The Boardman Iron Line steamer John T. Moore seems destined to work wonders in the Red river and New Orleans trade. Not only has she been the innovator of iron hulls in the Red river trade, but she has proven herself one of the largest carrying and staunchest steamers, for that peculiar trade, afloat. On her last trip from this port she has made the fastest time on recon to Shreveport.

—The Portsmouth Republican, of last week, says: The Viola's whistle string was lifted Monday night, to announce her arrival. By some means the thing wouldn't let down, and for about one long hour there was a resonant voice upon the deep. Crowds rushed down to the levee, supposing that something terrible had transpired. She blowed as long as her steam lasted. Honshell was beat for once.

—She St. Louis Dispatch says: Captain W. S. Stewart, late of the Bengal Tiger arrived this morning from Lyons, and having chartered the James Gilmore, will take charge of her on reaching Alton, and proceed with a tow of coal to Quincy and Davenport.

—The Mollie Ebert arrived at New Orleans on Thursday last.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CONSUMPTION.

Its Cure and its Preventive.

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M.D.

Many a human has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionary disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbification of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can not be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country, in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of the blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

"As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses: the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone for ever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a propylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea-weed Tonic $1 50 a bottle, or $7 50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. ap18:p3-TTHS

BY USING THE

Wellman Patent Reflector STOVE AND GRATE.

Which Stand Without a Rival.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.

1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.

2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.

3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.

4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.

5th. It is highly ornamental.

6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.

7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.

Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.

Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

Good Health is a magazine whose aim is the improvement of human health and the lengthening of human life. It is always full of good sound advice and popular articles on health subjects. The third volume begins with the June number, and now is the time to subscribe, particularly as valuable improvements are promised for the new volume. It is published by Alexander Moore, in Boston.

Accident to a Painter.—Yesterday afternoon, as a painter, whose name we could not learn, was engaged in painting the front, near the roof, of the house of Mr. Murdock, situated on Page street, near the Fifth Ward school house, Allegheny, by some means lost his balance and fell to the ground, sustaining severe injuries. He was picked up and carried into the house, and after he had recovered somewhat was sent to his home in a carriage.

Subscribe Before it is Too Late.—Capitalists and all concerned should bear in mind that books are open this week for subscription to the capital stock of the company for erecting a bridge over the Ohio river, to connect Temperanceville with the lower wards of Allegheny. The various places where books are to be found are indicated in the advertisement of John E. Parke, Secretary, on our first page. We understand that much interest is felt in this enterprise, and that the stock is likely to be all taken up during this week.

Fight at the Clinton Mills.—A fight occurred yesterday afternoon, between J. Jenkins and John Ward, at the Clinton Mills, Monongahela borough. During the melee Ward picked up a pair of heavy tongs, and struck Jenkins in the face, laying the left cheek open to the bone. Dr. J. H. Roberts was called in, and dressed the wounds of the injured man, after which he repaired to the office of Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, and made an information against Ward for felonious assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Runaway in Allegheny.—Yesterday evening as a young man, accompanied by a lady, was driving along Montgomery avenue towards Union the horses took fright and dashed along to the end of the avenue, but instead of turning into Union avenue they jumped over the fence into the Park carrying the pole with them, but leaving the buggy outside. The driver was dragged out and severely but not dangerously bruised. The young lady retained her seat in the buggy perfectly cool, and remarked when she alighted that "it was jolly."

Coroner's Inquest.—Coroner West yesterday afternoon held an inquest on the body of a boy nine years of age who died at the residence of his parents on 5th avenue, just beyond Soho on Saturday night at twelve o'clock. The reason why an inquest was held is that there was some talk to the effect that the boy had died from trifling injuries inflicted by a maiden lady by the name of Miss Mary Cunningham. It appears that on Palm Sunday this boy with some others, was throwing stones, as was their frequent habit, at the house of Miss Cunningham when she ran out, caught the lad and boxed his ears. He jerked away from her and in his hurry to escape fell over the hydrant cutting his lip, which bled quite profusely. This slight injury was alleged by some of the busybodies in the neighborhood to be the cause of the boy's death, notwithstanding he has been working ever since, till within a day or two of his death. Miss Cunningham, learning that blame was attached to her, requested the Coroner to hold an inquest, in order that the exact cause of death might be made known. Dr. Murdoch held a post mortem examination and gave it as his opinion that death resulted from congestion of the brain. A verdict was rendered accordingly by the jury, who also acquitted Miss Cunningham of all blame.

Mortuary Report.

Married.

This morning we announce the marriage of our friend, Mr. U. S. Stuart, to Miss Malinda Hopper, the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Margarette Marshall, which took place one evening last week in St. Peter's Episcopal church, and was witnessed by a large and brilliant assemblage. Mr. Stuart is well known to our community as an active, energetic Democratic politician, and we are sorry that his politics are not as sound as his judgment, for in his matrimonial movement he has selected for a bride a lady worthy the hand and heart of any gentleman. We have known her from childhood, and can but say that a truer hearted, more womanly or nobler girl never lived. The happy couple have our earnest wishes for their future welfare and happiness.

Not a Candidate.

The Dispatch persists in stating that Mr. Henry M. Long is a candidate for the office of County Controller, occasionally varying its song by stating that he aspires even higher than this office. He is very much obliged to the Dispatch for the notoriety he has gained through its kind efforts, but we have the very best authority for stating that he is not a candidate for that or any other office. When he shall be, if ever, he will be duly grateful for a continuance of the very complimentary notices which it has pleased the Dispatch folks to write lately in his behalf. Their friendship, although misapplied in this instance, is none the less appreciated; but until he shall offer his name to the public, we trust our Fifth avenue contemporary will permit him to remain in happy retirement, as he does not desire any further notice from their kind pens at present.

James H. Rankin.

We direct attention to the card of this gentleman, who has removed his place of business to No. 6 Sixth (late St. Clair) street. Mr. R. keeps on hand a large and varied assortment of house furnishing goods, consisting in part of clothes wringers, kitchen utensils, ice boxes, ice cream freezers, refrigerators, bread and meat safes, coffee mills, coat and hat racks, cake boxes, fruit baskets, knives and forks, jelly moulds, step-ladders, in short everything useful about a house, and a thousand and one things in number. Every housekeeper can be accommodated with any useful article from a pin to a washing machine, and at rates greatly reduced. Give Mr. Rankin a call, and our word for it, you will find him not only a courteous gentleman, but a liberal and high minded merchant with whom it is a pleasure to deal. Make your purchases at No. 6 Sixth street, and you will not be cheated or humbugged.

Fire Yesterday Evening.

About half past seven o'clock yesterday evening a fire broke out in the double frame two story house on the corner of Marion street and 5th avenue. The flames were first seen to issue from the roof, and an alarm having been sounded the Department were quickly on the ground and extinguished it. The fire was first discovered in the corner house which has been unoccupied for the past six months and by some is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary while others say that it was the result of a gas explosion. The adjoining house was occupied by a butcher by the name of Christ. Burger who will lose about $100, furniture damaged by water. The loss on the houses, which are owned by McCormick Logue will not amount to over $150, and is fully covered by insurance. About nine o'clock the fire broke out a second time but the engines being promptly on hand, it was extinguished without further damage.

Daniel Dougherty, Esq.

In speaking of this gentleman's lecture on oratory, which he is to deliver in Library Hall next Friday, an Eastern exchange says:

"It was a splendid effort. He defined true oratory; spoke of what different persons deem the sphere of the orator, and gave us a number of specimens of the styles now prevalent in the Houses of Parliament, England. But we will not even attempt to give a synopsis of this masterly effort. The lecture is written in the most finished and perfect style of diction, and delivered magnificently. As he went along, at intervals he would step away from his stand and give us a specimen of oratory that fairly thrilled the immense audience. Such, for instance, as when he recited a passage from the speech of the Irish barrister, Curran, on the Emancipation Bill. His audience could hardly wait until he was through before they broke forth in wild applause; then his hearers would be convulsed with laughter; then again subdued by some pathetic passage, until you would think the house was empty, it was so silent.

Fire Yesterday—Enterprise Works Destroyed.

Yesterday about half-past twelve o'clock a fire broke out in the Enterprise Roofing Company's building, corner Penn and Twenty-sixth street, and in less than half an hour they were destroyed. The fire was occasioned by the boiling over of some tar, upon which a workman threw cold water. This spread the flames and resulted in total destruction of the buildings. It was a large sheet iron structure and had been constructed but a few weeks. The loss was about $4,000, upon which there is an insurance of $3,000, equally divided between the Enterprise of Pittsburgh, and Ben Franklin of Allegheny.

The "Enterprise" was a stock company, consisting of Robt. Dickson, President; W. W. Brown, Secretary, and Will C. Dickson, Treasurer, who compose the Directors with the addition of Edwin Bradley and William Anshutz.

The works will be immediately reconstructed, and work will be resumed in about two weeks.

PITTSBURGH COUNCILS.

Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting—What was Said and Done—The Joint Session—No "Bolt"—The Caucus Nominees Successful—Various Matters of Interest—Resolutions of Respect—O'Donovan-Rossa Tendered the Hospitalities of the City.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Councils was held at their Chambers, Monday afternoon, April 24th, 1871.

Select Branch.

This branch was called to order by the President at 2:15 o'clock.

On the roll being called, the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Ahl, Ahlborn, Aiken, Burgwin, Chislett, Devlin, Donnelly, Duncan, Edwards, Gallaher, Glenn, Herron, Hoeh, House, Jeremy, E. P. Jones, Isaac Jones, Kehew, Lang, Laufman, Liddell, Littell, Lloyd, Marshall, McCarthy, McCune, Miller, Morrow, Murdoch, Murray, Neely, Phillips, Rafferty, Scully, Seely, Shipton, Thompson, S. J. Wainwright, and Gross, President.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. SHIPTON presented the following memorial from the East End Gas Company.

To the Honorable Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN—The undersigned, a Committee appointed by the East End Gas Company, respectfully represent that according to the charter of said company, "The City Council may from time to time fix the price to be paid by the city to the East End Gas Company for gas, provided it shall not be less than one-half the amount paid by the consumers."

We, therefore, for the East End Gas Company, respectfully ask you to pass an ordinance instructing the City Solicitor or other proper officers, to contract with said company for five years for all gas furnished the city during that time, at $2 50 per one thousand cubic feet.

Amongst other reasons for this request are: 1st. That on the main avenues there are not private consumers enough to justify the company in laying the pipes; but if the city will agree to pay this price and but place lampposts along these avenues, and on such cross-streets as is decided necessary, we can, in anticipation of an increase of consumers, extend the pipes now on the principal thoroughfares, as fast as graded, and thus accommodate the public and invite a progressive spirit from other quarters.

2d. If the Pittsburgh Gas Co., after a close and careful calculation, could not afford to lay pipes on these main thoroughfares, it could not be expected a new company, without reward or reserve fund, could undertake it, unless they have a reasonable return for the outlay, and as there is no immediate prospect for a fair compensation from private consumers, owing to their limited number, we think it but reasonable that the city should at least assist in supplying (what will soon become a public necessity) light in the suburban districts.

3d. The price asked is not high when compared with that paid by other cities, and only seems so when compared with the price paid the Pittsburgh Gas Company; but for the low price charged by this company good reasons can be given not necessary here to mention, but which would be more than equivalent to that now asked by the East End Gas Company.

And your petitioners will ever pray,
GEORGE A. BERRY,
JOSEPH DILWORTH,
JAMES S. MCCORD,
Committee.

Referred to Gas Committee and the City Solicitor.

O'DONOVAN-ROSSA.

Mr. MCCARTHY offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to extend the hospitalities of the city to O'Donovan-Rossa on his arrival in our city on the first of May next. Carried.

PETITIONS.

Mr. JEREMY, the petition of Wm. Sumner, asking permission to erect a building partly of brick and partly of wood on Watson street, Sixth ward. Referred to the Committee on Wooden Buildings.

Mr. E. P. JONES, a petition for the opening of Bedford avenue, from Erin street to junction of Bedford and Webster avenues. Referred to Road Committee.

A preliminary count at twenty minutes past two o'clock, showed a quorum to be present, when the Clerk called the roll. Mr. MORGAN explained that a mistake had been made in certain ordinances passed some few months ago in relation to the grading and paving of certain alleys. They had called for the improvement between Forty-eighth and Fifty-first streets whereas the petition asked only for the improvement between Forty-eight and Fiftieth streets; to remedy this mistake he presented an ordinance amending the ordinances for grading and paving of Plum alley, so as to provide for the improvement between Forty-eighth and Fiftieth streets; also, Blackberry alley between Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth streets. The ordinances were read three times and passed finally under suspension of the rules.

SELECT COUNCIL BUSINESS,

as acted upon in that branch at a previous meeting, was then taken up and concurrences had in the following business: In accepting Road Committee's report. In referring to Road Committee, with power to act, petition for plank walk on Liberty street, Seventh ward. In passing finally resolution in relation to Gas Company. The ordinance relating to public sewer on Thirty-third street, passed in C. C. March 27th, in S. C. was referred to Street Committee. C. C. adhered to their action as the ordinance had been before that Committee. S. C. adhered and asked for a Committee of Conference, and appointed Messrs. Miller and Devlin. C. C. appointed Messrs. Batchelor, Scott and Morgan.

Council then went into joint session.

After the adjournment of the joint session, Common Council proceeded with business.

Mr. ARTHURS presented a remonstrance against the passage of the ordinance.

Some discussion ensued upon a motion to pass the ordinance finally.

Mr. MCCANDLESS moved to postpone consideration until next meeting, until the question could be decided, whether the alley was a public or private one. Lost.

Mr. ARTHURS then called for the yeas and nays on the final passage of the ordinance, with the following result:

Ayes—Messrs. Barr, Batchelor, Belfore, Booth, Brown, Buffum, Caskey, Chalmers, Coyle, Dietrich, Duff, David L. Fleming, John Fleming, Lewis J. 	$2,202 70
Pay roll of night police	9,112 40
Total	$11,315 10

The report not being signed by a majority of the Committee, Mr. Morgan objected to its acceptance, and it was laid over. Subsequently it received the proper signatures, and was accepted and filed.

Mr. BATCHELOR presented the report of the Survey Committee, accompanied by plan of grade on Collin's avenue. Report accepted and plan approved.

Mr. J. H. JONES presented a petition for grading and paving of Butler street from northeast end of Cemetery to McKelvy's oil works.

"THE IRISH PATRIOT."

The resolution tendering the hospitalities of the city to O'Donovan Rossa was read.

Mr. CHALMERS—Who's that?

President OLIVER—Why, the Irish patriot.

Mr. CHALMERS—I never heard of him. There must be some mistake. That sounds like an Italian name. [Laughter].

The resolution was then passed.

A communication was received from Messrs. John Seifert and J. H. Jones, tendering the Councils an invitation to participate in the "German Peace Festival" at Friendship Grove on May 1st. Accepted.

Council then adjourned.

JOINT SESSION.

Assembled in Common Council chamber, President GROSS of the Select branch presiding.

The object of the meeting was stated when

MR. M'CARTHY "RISES TO EXPLAIN."

MR. M'CARTHY, who had taken up a prominent position near the desk, said: "Before we proceed to ballot I have a word to say. If I am in order—"bowing to the President, and receiving permission to go on"—I was about to say then that I feel that I would be direlict in my duty to myself as a man and as a councilman if I allowed an insult which I consider has been passed upon me in this business. It is well known that I was at first and have always been an advocate for the Paid Fire Department, and feel proud to say that which I expected of it has been accomplished, and that it has even gone beyond my highest anticipations and—

Mr. MORROW—I rise to a point of order. What is the business before the house.

Several members, sotto voce—That's it; that's a point.

PRESIDENT GROSS—I stated the object of the meeting to be the election of three Fire Commissioners, and then Mr. McCarthy arose. We yielded the floor to him, and—

Mr. MCCARTHY—Yes, sir, and no one objected; so I am in order, and—

Mr. MORROW—Well, then, to get the matter up properly, I move that we now proceed to the election.

The motion was seconded and announced by the Chair.

NO POLITICAL MACHINE.

MR. MCCARTHY.—Now I am in order [laughter.] As I was about to say there was a Democratic caucus held last year and it was then decided that the Fire Commission was not a political machine and the Democrats should have a fair representation; but did we get it, No sir, I find no fault with the caucus however, which we held or the men which we as Democrats nominated then. I find the fault with the man whom we unfortunately made the mouth-piece of that caucus and whose whole course in that capacity was blundering and ignorant. He was as dumb as the statue of Pompey where Ceaser fell [laughter.] and so we lost our proper representation.

Now this year there has been a caucus of Republicans held, and it was again decided that there should be two Democrats in the Commission. But when are we going to get them.

You have the power and right, if it is to be made a political machine, to name all Republicans, but you have not the right to insult me as a man and as a Councilman, and the Democrats in Council, by taking upon yourselves to select whom you please to call Democrats to fill that position.

You have nominated two men as Democrats, when one of them is not a Democrat by any means. Why I can prove it that he said any man who called him a Democrat was a d——n liar, or words to that effect. (Slight sensation.)

ONLY ONE MAN.

Now, sirs, all I ask is that you permit us to name one man, and that is all. We want a true Democrat to represent us. If you don't do this, then as Republicans say clearly "we have the power and will give you nothing." This, according to the political school, would be fair, as it is taught there that might make's right.

The gentleman who offered the resolution in caucus to select two Democrats (Colonel Phillips) did it in that impetuous but successful way he has of doing everything. [Laughter]. I would say of him that his transcendent abilities should not be confined to the government of a small city. This city is too narrow for him, and if he filled his proper sphere, he would to-day be governing distracted and blood-cursed France. [Cheers and laughter.] I ask him now, then, to come to this floor and explain himself, ask forgiveness and be forgiven. [Laughter].

As the gentleman sank back into his seat, exhausted, cries of "question," "question," greeted the Presidential ears from all parts of the house.

Mr. LLOYD—I now nominate Messrs. W. B. Neeper, J. J. Toley and J. H. McIlroy.

Mr. MCCARTHY—I nominate Charles B. Strain. (Laughter).

The nominations were then closed and all fears of a "bolt" faded away, as the Council resolved itself into comparative calmness and the ballot was proceeded with.

THE FIRST "BOLTER."

The business went on without a ripple of excitement until "Mr. Jeremy" of the Seventh ward was called, and Mr. Jeremy responded for "Neeper, Torley and Strain."

Mr. McCarthy smiled benignantly upon the first who had been won over by his eloquence.

Mr. Liddell was the next, who repudiated McIlroy and came up for "Strain."

Mr. McCarthy's name was called.

"Charles B. Strain" was the reply. [Laughter.]

Mr. JONES—Oh, vote for a Republican, too.

Mr. MCCARTHY—No, sir; none of that. [Applause.]

As the calling proceeded some interest was felt in the decision of Mr. Rafferty, but that gentleman disappointed general expectation and held himself up to the withering scorn of his colleague, Mr. McCarthy, by quietly voting the straight ticket. He refused to be "Strained."

Messrs. Scully, Coyle and Hayden, Democrats, and Gilmore and Belfore, Republicans, completed the adherents of Strain, when

THE "STRAIN" WITHDRAWN.

Mr. ARTHURS interrupted the Clerk and moved the election of Messrs. Torley, Neeper and McIlroy by acclamation.

Mr. MCCARTHY—I call the gentleman to order. [Laughter.]

The Chair decided the motion out of order.

After several other members had voted and it became apparent that Mr. Strain's chances were growing very perceptibly dim,

Mr. MCCARTHY asked leave to withdraw his name.

Mr. JONES—I move to lay that on the table.

Mr. MCCARTHY—I forgive the gentleman's impertinence on account of his old age. [Cheers and laughter.] I insist upon withdrawing Mr. Strain from this contest.

The Chair decided that the privilege must be accorded, and thus for the remainder of the ballot there were but three candidates.

When Mr. Scott's name was called he said, "When we met in caucus a few nights ago it was represented that the Commission was entitled to two Democrats. To-day I am satisfied that is one of these nominated we have a wolf in sheep's clothing. I am satisfied we have one. Therefore I'll cast my vote for Torley and Neeper."

The ballot proceeded without further interruption to the close, when the result showed the vote to be:

*Neeper	93
*Torley	92
*McIlroy	84
Strain	9

Messrs. Neeper, Torley and McIlroy were then elected unanimously, and were declared chosen as Fire Commissioners for three years, when Joint Session adjourned.

MEETING OF COLORED CITIZENS.

New Selections Made for the City Executive Committee.

A second meeting of the colored voters of the city, much larger than the first, was held at the Franklin street school last night for the purpose of choosing seven of their number to represent them on the City Executive Committee who will be more acceptable than those nominated at the previous meeting.

On motion, Alderman Butler, Chairman of the City Executive Committee, was called to the chair, and Mr. Daniel Atwood appointed Secretary.

The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was called for, but they not being at hand, the Chairman stated their purport.

Mr. Owens moved to reconsider the action of the last meeting.

Mr. Little asked if the action of a meeting that had adjourned sine die could be reconsidered. He stated that the former meeting had been called by order of the City Executive Committee, and that its action was binding, and that the Chairman of the Executive Committee had no right to call a second.

The speaker also raised the point of order that a motion to rescind must be made by one who had voted in the affirmative.

The point of order was overruled by the Chair, and, after some further debate in which quite a number participated, the motion to rescind was adopted.

Mr. Googans, then moved that a committee of seven be apponted by the meeting to select the names of seven colored citizens to be placed on the City Executvie Committee. Carried.

After some difficulty the following committee was appointed and retired to make the proposed selections; Jacob C. Brown, Daniel Atwood, E. D. Johnson, Lemuel Googans, Charles O'Donnell, R. W. Bell, and B. W. Thomas.

John Little was nominated on the committee but declined to serve as he did not recognise the legality of the meeting. John Turfley was also nominated but declined to serve without stating his reasons.

The nominating committee returned, and through their chairman reported that they had selected fourteen names, seven of which were to be chosen by the meeting.

The chairman stated to the committee that they had been appointed to select seven names only, and that their report must be so amended.

The committee then retired a second time, and after a short absence returned and reported the following names:

Wm. Johnston, East Liberty.
Wm. Watson, Fourteenth ward.
Edward Bailey, Thirteenth ward.
James W. Owens, Eleventh ward.
Jeremiah Grandison, Eighth ward.
John Smith, Seventh ward.
A. B. Lloyd, Second ward.

On motion adjourned.

Personals.

HON. HENRY WARNER is a candidate for County Controller.

R. J. MCGOWAN, ESQ, City Controller, is a candidate for re-election. He is an excellent man, and will be hard to beat.

HON. JAMES L. GRAHAM and James McBrier, Esq., are the candidates for Senate north of river. The fight will be bitter, and every inch of ground contested by their respective friends.

MAT. EDWARDS is in the field for Harrisburg the coming winter. He don't know who he has to whip, but we will bet a big pippen that he makes the rifle.

BEN MORGAN, Charlie Jeremy and Dr. Arthurs were at the meeting of the colored men last evening in the Seventh ward.

"CHARLIE JEREMY and Ben Morgan are jealous of each other and both claim to be the leader of the Welsh element. Where is Evan Jones?

Human Happiness.

An English journal, taking the census of human happiness for the city of London, produces the following figures:

Runaway husbands	2,348
Runaway wives	1,132
Married parties legally divorced	4,175
Married parties living in open warfare	17,345
Married parties living in private misunderstanding	13,345
Married parties living mutually indifferent	55,279
Married parties regarded as comfortable	3,175
Married parties nearly happy	125
Married parties perfectly happy	13

We give the above statistics in the cheering conviction that if thirteen married couples are happy in London, they are thirteen times more fortunate than our original parents were in the garden of Eden, and thus prove, in an overwhelming way, the moral progress of man and womankind.

YESTERDAY'S LICENSE COURT.

The Second List Taken up—Another Defeat for the Saloon Keepers—Few Licenses Granted but Many Heard.

Yesterday morning the License Board assembled at ten o'clock, for the purpose of considering the second list of applications. As there are ten lists and only one so far has been disposed of, the prospects for a daily summer session are highly encouraging. Yesterday, with commendable forethought, the Commissioners vacated their own quarters and took charge of the Criminal Court Room; they anticipated a crowd, and verily their anticipations were realized. The largest assemblage which has yet hovered about them was gathered in the room while those who failed to gain admittance distributed themselves out along the corridors and in every available spot within seeing distance of the door. The excitement was intense, but the business proceeded regularly, and without unusual interruption.

The first case heard was that of John Leane Nineteenth ward, of Pittsburgh; nine rooms and ten beds. In this there was some heavy skirmishing between Messrs. McCarthy and Negley.

B. M. Craig, Ninth ward, Pittsburgh. No decision.

Owen Corcoran, Fifth ward, Pittsburgh. Mr. McCarthy again appeared and fought vigorously for his client, Mr. Negley battling valiantly for the citizens. No decision.

Valentine Denhart, First ward, Pittsburgh. In this case the citizens' counsel produced the record, showing that a person named Valentine Denhart was convicted of selling liquor on Sunday.

Mr. Cohen—Now let Mr. Negley show that this is the man he is talking about. I claim that the applicant is not the man named in the record. And I contend that if he is the man the record does not hurt his case. The law in this respect only contemplates persons who sell to minors and those who keep their houses open after twelve o'clock at night. Let the gentleman show us the law.

Mr. Negley—Oh, there is no use talking about that.

Mr. Moore—Yes, but there is use in talking. The law is very clear on that point.

Mr. Negley—I submit the record as bearing upon the moral character of the applicant. A man who sells liquor on Sunday does not possess the moral character requisite to entitle him to license. No such man ought to be licensed.

There was no decision.

It will be seen that the Board have made no decision in a majority of the applications heard, and it is probable they will not be acted upon to-day. A member of the Board stated, in answer to an inquiry as to when they would decide on these cases, that it was impossible to tell, as the business was conducted so hurriedly that they had not time to give the cases due consideration and decide them at once. It is their intention, we believe, to look over the applications that have been heard while not in session, so as to be ready to pronounce their decisions in open court hereafter.

Joseph Warner, Mt. Washington. A remonstrance was presented, setting forth that the house had not sufficient accommodations. It was also claimed that the petition was defective. It was so decided by the Board, and license was refused.

John O'Neal, Fifth ward, Pittsburgh. House contains thirteen rooms and twelve beds. Application granted.

Fred. Smith, Third ward, Pittsburgh, House No. 78 Smithfield street; contains eleven rooms and twelve beds. This is the old gas office, corner of Smithfield street and Diamond alley. A remonstrance was presented. Case held over.

John Roth, Pittsburgh; applicant to sell with other goods. License granted.

S. Roedelheim, First ward, Pittsburgh; applicant to sell with other goods.

Mr. Negley—Do you sell liquor by the pint?

Applicant—I decline to answer that question.

Mr. Cohen—They have no right to ask the question. The man is a wholesale liquor dealer, and the presumption is that he does not violate the law. Let them prove that he does.

The Board decided that the question was improper.

The decision was held over.

Henry Schuetz, First ward, Pittsburgh. Sufficient accommodations sworn to. No decision.

Sam'l. Shaw, Seventeenth ward, Pittsburgh. Mr. Jennings interposed a transcript from the Mayor's docket showing that the applicant had been fined for selling liquor on Sunday.

Mr. Reardon, counsel for applicant, contended that this was not sufficient, under the law, to prevent its granting of a license.

Mr. Negley said it was sufficient to damage the applicant's character for morality. The Board reserved its decision.

Frank Bepp, Nineteenth ward, Pittsburgh; twelve rooms; eleven beds for strangers. No decision.

Alexander Speer, Hamilton township; nine rooms and eight beds. Granted.

John A. Bumgartel, McCandless township; seven rooms and five beds for strangers. Granted.

Andrew Miller, Indiana townihip; eight rooms ane eight beds. Granted.

Matthias Renn, Mifflin township; two bed rooms and four beds for travelers. Granted.

Christ. Freelich, Reserve township. Granted.

Dr. A. J. Rankin, Fourth ward Pittsburgh; Applicant to sell liquor with other goods. No action.

Frederick Bauer, Third ward, Pittsburgh.

Mr Moore, counsel for applicant, said the law only required that a man should make proof of accommodations and moral character. This first had been done in filing the petition. He now proposed to ask the witness but one question—as to the moral character of the applicant

The witness was then questioned as to moral character, when Mr. Moore said, "Our case is made out."

Mr. Bruce (to witness)—Have you been through the house of this applicant?

Mr. Moore—I object to the question. He is our witness, and we asked him nothing relating to the house. Nothing of the kind, therefore, can be brought out on cross-examination.

Mr. Bruce—I now call him as my witness.

Mr. Moore—I deny that he is your witness.

Mr. Negley—I propose to ask the applicant if Mr. Bartberger, one of his endorsers, is a resident of the Third ward.

Mr. Moore—I object; stop now. The law says the petition shall embrace a certificate signed by twelve citizens of the ward in which the applicant resides. Here is the certificate and it is sufficient.

Mr. Negley of the Board—What is the question?

Mr. Bruce—The question is, can I ask a question. I ask the witness if he has been through the house.

The Board ruled that the question was proper.

Mr. Bruce—How often have you been through the applicant's house in the last six months. A—Three or four times.

Mr. Negley to applicant—Does Mr. Bartberger live in the Sixth ward.

Mr. Moore—You need'nt answer.

The Board decided that the applicant should answer.

The Applicant—I don't know. He has his shop corner of Strawberry alley and Smithfield street.

Mr. Negley—We will call Mr. E. A. Montooth in regard to Bartberger's residence.

Mr. M. was not called, however. No decision.

B. Gallisaith, Third ward, Pittsburgh. There was no opposition and the license was granted.

Charles Miller, Shaler township. Accommodations proved.

Mr. Negley—Have you ever kept your bar open on the Sabbath day?

Mr. McBride, applicant's counsel, objected, and the applicant was not required to answer.

The application was granted.

Dennis Hesier, Sharpsburg. Applicant showed that he had sufficient accommodations and a good moral character.

Mr. Negley asked the applicant if he had ever been convicted of selling liquor on Sunday.

Mr. Mackrell said the question was not proper, and told the applicant not to answer.

Mr. Negley—Well, then, I will ask the witness the same question.

Mr. Mackrell—The law expressly says that the best proof applicable to the case must be furnished. Now, we mention that the record in this case is the best proof.

Mr. Negley—We ask the question of the witness for the purpose of showing that the applicant is not a man of good moral character, and not to his guilt or innocence of the crime.

The Board decided that in this view the question was proper.

The witness answered, "No."

There was no decision upon the application.

Fred. Schild, First ward, Pittsburgh. Wants license to sell liquor with other goods. Granted.

Eliza Fisher, Temperanceville. Witnesses were called to prove that the applicant sold liquor on Sunday. Fred. Gross testified that he had seen persons go into the house on Sunday, sober, and, soon after they would come out drunk.

Mr. Mackrell—Mr. Gross were you not in the house drunk, and got put out?

Witness (excitedly)—Who said that? I drink sometimes, but I was not drunk there.

Question—Were you ever drunk?

A.—I guess that is not your business. [Laughter.]

Q.—What do you know about the house?

A.—I guess it's a very nice house. (Laughter.)

Another witness testified that the house was unnecessary, and that there was a great deal of drunkenness around it. There were seven licensed houses in the borough, and they were so close together that witness could not tell at which particular house the people got drunk.

Mr. Gross, the first witness, said on cross-examination that he was a barber, and shaved people on Sunday.

A Mr. Harris was called and said that the house was not necessary because there was a great deal of drinking done there.

Witness—Well, I have heard some persons talk about her license. She refused to give them a drink.

Mr. Negley—What is the reputation of the applicant for morality?

It appeared during the examination that the applicant's husband was living, and that he had gone to Europe. Mr. Negley asked a witness why the husband was in Europe.

Mr. Mackrell objected to the question. He said it had nothing to do with the case. It made no difference if the husband had gone to Europe or the devil.

Mr. Commissioner Neeley—We have had enough of this case. The Board will adjourn till half-past one.

Council Brevities.

Mr. Negley—W. B.—was not at Council yesterday. He was worrying the saloon keepers in the Quarter Sessions.

Mr. David Sims appeared in his place in Common Council for the first time in several months. He was warmly received and congratulated by his associates upon his restoration to health.

Mr. Guy, the venerable father-in-law of Dr. McCandless, occupied a seat alongside his relative in Common Council, an interested spectator of how the City Fathers manage the city's business.

City Solicitor Slagle is the great legal mogul of the Councils. He is appealed to in every doubtful case—many times yesterday—and decides finally.

City Engineer Moore figured conspicuously yesterday, though he didn't speak out in "meetin'."

The lobbies were crowded—during the joint session, especially. The fire commissionship seemed to fire up an interest in the proceedings.

The most beautiful sight in Councils yesterday was the appearance of two bright young school girls, who appeared in the lobbies after the adjournment of the joint session—the rainbows after the storm. They had evidently just been retiring from school, and prompted by a peculiar curiosity ventured into the august presence of the City Fathers, many of whom, especially the younger ones, turned aside for a moment from weighty affairs of State to favor them with a benign smile. They vanished forthwith, bearing the remembrance of a pretty episode which has never heretofore had a counterpart in the stated gatherings of our municipal patriots.

I Have been using Sawyer's Barber Soap for about nine years, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the best shaving soap I have ever used. It is now used in our family almost exclusively as a toilet soap and gives entire satisfaction. JOHN DOUGLAS,

A SAD CASE.

Insanity from Consumption.

Yesterday morning a sad case was developed at the Allegheny Mayor's office. The evening previous at a late hour a woman made her appearance at the lock-up and requested the assistance of the police in arresting her husband, James Davis, who had suddenly become insane at his residence on the Perrysville Plank Road, near the Observatory.

Davis, it appears, is a young man not over thirty years of age. He has a wife and family, and was a sober, industrious man until about two weeks ago, when he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs. This developed into consumption, with which he has since been suffering.

Sunday evening he suddenly became insane and attempted to kill his wife. She avoided him and by the aid of a neighbor had him secured, after which she appeared at the lock-up.

The police brought Davis down, and he was kept in a cell all night. Yesterday morning he was taken to a hospital in Pittsburgh, but they refused to admit him and he was taken to the lock-up, where he remained last night. The Mayor is in a quandary how to dispose of the case, but probably the man will be removed to the Poor Farm to-day.

Missing.

Richard Hilliard, of Sewickly, has been missing since Monday of last week, when he came to the city to collect some money. He was accompanied by his wife, who returned, leaving him to finish up some business. He has not been seen since, and as he was a man of sober habits, foul play is suspected. He has a wife and five children. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his late employer, Mr. Samuel Little, Sewickly, or his wife, Mrs. Eliza Hilliard.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH, }
164 Fourth avenue, Mar. 11, 1871. }

As our city is liable a visitation of that terrible disease, small pox, (it being now very prevalent in some of the Eastern cities), we would urge upon our citizens the importance of immediate vaccination. The Physician of the Board of Health will be in attendance at the office of the Board, No. 164 Fourth avenue, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, from 2 to 3 P. M. for the purpose of gratuitous vaccination, and all persons are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity.

By order of the Board of Health,
eod:lm. CROSBY GRAY, Health Officer.

Messrs. B. C. & J. H. Sawyer.

For the past twelve months I have used almost exclusively, your "Barbers' Soap," and I cheerfully bear my witness to its superiority. It is far more pleasant than the highly scented French soaps, or the imitations that are so commonly used, and is much more durable and economical, either for shaving or for use in the bath. I am certain it only needs a fair trial to commend it to very general favor; besides being a home manufacture, it is a superior article that justly merits commendation. JOHN SCARBOROUGH, Rector of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

INJUNCTION ASKED.

A Deserted Wife who has sued for Divorce and Alimony, seeks to restrain her Husband from Disposing of his Property.

A bill in equity was yesterday morning filed in the District Court by David Reed and B. F. Kennedy, Esq., by which the complainant, Mrs. Eliza Bond seeks to obtain an injunction restraining her husband, John B. Bond from disposing of her property. The petitioner, Mrs. Bond, states that in January 1870, her husband, the said John B. Bond deserted her and that that there is now pending in the Court of Common Pleas, a suit in divorce and for alimony. She also alleges that since the desertion, in March 1870, he executed to his brother, Lafayette Bond, with whom he now resides, a mortgage on his real estate, including the house occupied by the complainant, in the final sum of $12,000, conditioned for the payment of six thousand dollars in one year from the date thereof, with leave to issue a sci. fa. forthwith on failure to comply with the conditions. That on the 4th of March, 1871, the husband, accompanied by his brother, visited the Prothonotary's office, waived the usual proceedings, and confessed judgment for the whole amount, with interest. That at No. 193, April term, 1871, the husband confessed another judgment in favor of his brother Lafayette, for the sum of $1,352 68. Mrs. Bond avers that she does not believe her husband was indebted to his brother, nor does she believe that the brother had any means to enable him to give any consideration whatever for the mortgages and judgment, but believes that they were obtained through fraud, or given for the purpose of defrauding her out of her marital rights for support and maintenance, and for effecting a sale of the property so as to divest any rights which she may have therein. She accordingly asks equitable relief, and prays that the husband may be restrained from further encumbering the said property, and that Lafayette Bond be restrained from proceeding with the sale of said property on the levari facias on the judgment on the mortgage until the further order of the Court.

Judge Kirkpatrick, before whom the application was made, granted a preliminary injunction, and fixed the case for a hearing this morning at nine o'clock.

SPEAKING of terrapins, the Lebanon Star gives this item from Clinton county: "Isaiah Morton, in plowing round a terrapin, and trying to transmit his name to unborn generations, concluded to cut it from the shell of this slow traveler, but, on clearing the surface, what was his surprise to find the name of his father, and the date, 1831, plainly carved upon the shell. Mr Morton's father has been dead for twenty-five years."
